

Playing With My Emotions

Tedeschi Trucks Band

How's a man supposed to love a girl
When she's playing with my emotions?
You take her in and you give her the world
Now she's playing with my emotions
It never entered into your plans
Like a ship tossing out on the ocean
You cross the desert just to be her man
And now she's playing with my emotions

Pin me down when I'm trying to move
Is that what you call gratitude?
Well you're playing with my emotions
Playing with my emotions

Don't mind me, I'm on my way
'Cause you're playing with my emotions

How's a girl supposed to love a man
When he's playing with my emotions?
He's flying home but he never lands
Now he's playing with my emotions
A dozen roses but your phone don't ring
And he wants to call that devotion
Apologize but he don't change a thing
And he's playing with my emotions

Pin me down when I'm trying to move
Is that what you call gratitude?
Well you're playing with my emotions
Playing with my emotions

Don't mind me, I'm on my way
'Cause you're playing with my
Playing with my emotions
Playing with my emotions
Beg and plead but you're too late
'Cause you're playing with my
Oh, my emotions
