Born with' it in my blood, I'ma be bustin' checks forever
Somebody asked, "Have I ever got declined once? ", never
I'm a veteran at fraud, I think you on rookie level
Listen to these songs and learn some free methods, 'cause it's helpful
You keep on tryna swipe, but it ain't go through, so you stressful
I got too many sites to try to keep up, talkin' several
I asked this boy, "How many numbers in a BIN? ", he told me, "Seven,"
And that right there just told me that you really don't be swipin'
19, 000 on a piece, I fucked the price up, shit I'm buyin' it
Spent 6, 000 off a piece, when the receipt come up, I'm signin'
CPN a diamond piece from gold [?], six-zero-one-one-zero-zero
I'm a scammer and a hero
Drain his bank account, now it's negative with zeros
But all you gotta do is just call and get it reimbursed
My nigga fucked up this plate for us, gotta re-rehearse
Before you sign a label contract, you gotta read it first
Long fraud bible, you will get rich if you read all the pages
You will get rich the first time you swipe, go through the rookie stages
Couldn't imagine this shit, now I'm on the Rolling Loud stages
So next year, now I'm aimin' for Coachella
I hope a nigga that I scammed would try to come and shoot up one of my shows
She look real familiar, think that's one of my hoes
That sound real familiar, think he stealin' my flow
That look real familiar, think he stealin' my clothes
Seen yo' new outfit, you need to throw it away
Please don't tell me you spent yo' money on that shit today
Goin' in public, so I gotta bring my stick today
Shot myself, 'cause I didn't make shit today
He had that same outfit on since yesterday (Hahahaha)
I ain't make no new roll, this the same money from yesterday
Got some goofy hoes, so I gotta ignore my bae
Ran off with his money, and I ignored his face
He should know he got scammed, so why he sendin' text messages?
Seen him in the airport and I hid in the restroom
Ain't playin' games with niggas, I'ma put you on yo' deathbed
I just got offered 20 million from DefJam
But I declined it because I make more off scammin'
He just tried to send me 7, 000 through CashApp
But that declined, 'cause they know that I'm scammin'
They ask why I scream talk my feelings through this microphone
'Cause if I was talkin' like this, y'all wouldn't understand
I just ran off on a nigga and did the running man
Slide undercover, we just pulled up in a white sedan
The opps couldn't even tell, cause we had tint
Get rich off music, still swipin' it's a habit
The lil' niggas don't want beef with us, we causin' havoc
Chillin' in Miami, fast cars, mansions
Guns in every state, we got AR's, handguns
Money from every bank, we got SunTrust, Capital One
Sendin' money to my nigga, 'cause he locked up for capital one
Got a check in the bank for a million, it's Capital One
Thought he caught me slippin' but I still got one in the head
Then he caught me slippin' I was at Walmart, tryna swipe I
I had a strap on me at the time so I walked right by him
Ain't on no scared shit, man, that was just a nigga that I scammed
