You can get the process done perfectly if you listen closely
This an in-store Best Buy pick-up method, listen to these steps Open up your computer, but make sure you got that VPN Once you did that, open your browser and head over to Google.co m
Proceed to enter "Best Buy United States official site"
But listen up, I got one warning for everybody Don't go onto the site using Internet Explorer
But once you on the site, these are the things you gotta do Listen to all these steps if you want everything to go through I know you tired of that bucket, you want a foreign expensive c oupe
And you want a big house with a huge chimney roof Once you on Best Buy, register account under the card holder's name
You gon' need all the information, the first, the last, and the middle name
But I got this one site where I be getting all my fullz from Said you want some money, try this method, you'll have a lot of it Once you signed up and you all ready to go Go on Tor Browser and enter "dark.fill"
That's how you gon' find all the dark web links
I think it might be down, but click "Empire Market" Grab a phone spoofer, now this where you 'bout to get started a t
This will allow you to get card numbers and make phone calls
Then from there, go back to BestBuy.com Put some electronics in the cart and start buyin'
Right after you order, call the cardholder's bank
Let the bank know you just placed an order online
To speed up the verification, say you need these items on time
'Cause my nerd son like playing video games Choose a location in the suburbs, that's the pick-up spot Then go clear the order through if you talked it over with the bank
Check your email for a code, should be a fifteen minute wait Soon as it say "Approved," you should be walkin' up to the plac e
To pick the items up, get a fake ID made So when they ask who it's for, you can say you pickin' up in yo ur name
You should be leaving out the store with a lot of Xboxs and gam es
But make sure to play it off like you a regular civilian

Doing this for two or three years straight can make a million Find a random guy or random place to cash you out at
If you desperate and need some money now, just go to the pawn shop
I just gave y'all another method on how to make some free money
