

Devotion

Teen Suicide

Write a love song once in a while
I swear it will make you feel so ordinary

Cosplay at my funeral
Talk to the dead

Show your devotion to the things you love

The devil is a man with a big white smile
An imposing voice and a great hairstyle,
He always looks you right in the eyes
The devil is a man with a great hairstyle
A soothing voice and a perfect smile
He always looks you right in the eyes

Show your devotion to the things you love
