

Back And Forth

Teenage Bottlerocket

She tells me that it's over and she's taking off
I tell her that I hate her and she says "get lost"
Y'know we scream and shout and bitch and fight
And we'll do it again more tomorrow night
I guess it just takes time to break our pride
All I know is that we go

Back and forth, we go back and forth
Yeah here we go
Back and forth, we go back and forth oh yeah
Oh yeah here we go
Back and forth, we go back and forth
Yeah here we go
Back and forth, we go back and forth
Well I just want you back

You tell me that it's happening like this again
You're walking out the door but then you're coming back in
We scream and shout and bitch and fight
And we'll do it again more tomorrow night
I guess it just takes time to break our pride
All I know is that we go

Back and forth, we go back and forth
Yeah here we go
Back and forth, we go back and forth oh yeah
Oh yeah yeah here we go
Back and forth, we go back and forth
Yeah here we go
Back and forth, we go back and forth
Well I just want you

But it's okay that you're not here
To whisper nothing in my ear
You said it's over, said it's time
But you've got something to say
Sometimes, sometimes we just can't help ourselves

We go back and forth, we go back and forth
Yeah here we go
Back and forth, we go back and forth oh yeah
Oh yeah yeah here we go
Back and forth, we go back and forth
Yeah here we go
Back and forth, we go back and forth
Well I just want you back

Back and forth, we go back and forth
Well I just want you back
Back and forth, we go back and forth
Well I just want you back
Back and forth, we go back and forth
Well I just want you back
Back and forth, we go back and forth
Well I just want you back, back
