

Steady State

Teenage Fanclub

Wake my love
We've dreamt enough
So wake my love
The steady state of life is calling

Make it up
We couldn't stop
So wake my love
The steady state of life is calling

One voice in the universe
She don't need prophecies to guide her
Sit down by the fireside
I feel the energy inside her
Past lives, they've got to go

Erase what I've become
And let myself succumb
To feelings of love
Oh my love
Erase what I've become
And let myself succumb
To feelings of love
Oh my love
Erase what I've become
And let myself succumb
To feelings of love
Oh my love
Erase what I've become
And let myself succumb
To feelings of love
Oh my love
