

Slide Away

Teenage Wrist

Hold me down and tell me what you need
Hold me down and drown me in your dreams
I will never break, I'll never break a smile
I will never show the apathy inside

'Till we all go home and disappear
I don't mind; the emptiness is real
I will never hold you, hold you to the sky
I will never break, I'll never question why

Just let me slide away, slide away
I was mistaken. You're an illusion, our dream to sleep
I was mistaken. You're an illusion, oh, oh, oh

Taste the skin, the memory I feel
Underneath we never seem to heal
Will the anger ever fade from deep inside?
Will I ever leave you feeling satisfied?

'Till we all go home and disappear
In my mind the emptiness is real
I would give you words if there were words to say
I will never mend our love 'till it's too late

I was mistaken. You're an illusion, our dream to sleep
I was mistaken. You're an illusion, oh, oh, oh
I was mistaken. You're an illusion, our dream to sleep
I was mistaken. You're an illusion, oh, oh, oh

Just let me slide away, slide away
Just let me slide away, slide away
Just let me slide away, slide away
Just let me slide away, slide away
