

Sprawled

Teenage Wrist

Strangers in a strange world
Top of a hill, staring out
Voices in the pale
Paid me no mind till you came down

Sprawled out in the street
When all of the lights turn green
Fireflies graced the sea
They're nothing now, a memory

We're made of mistakes
But we could let them fade
When you let your light break through
Nobody shines like you
Nobody shines like you

Where would the street ever take us now
Back to the start where we meet?
Future's only gonna pin you down
So let's stay right here for now
Let's stay for now
Let's stay for now
Stay for now
