

Falling From Grace

Tei Shi

If I was born 100 years ago
This would be the death of me
Instead, we're rushing to the hospital
While you're clinging to me

Didn't know it
What I wanted, but I
Didn't show it
'Cause I wasn't ready to die
Blood is running
Where you think it's going?
Cut me open, look inside

I don't like what you're doing to my body I'm so sorry
Couldn't lie on the toilet with you running through me

Close your eyes, say goodbye
Falling from grace
You're falling from grace
Butterflies, but it hurts
Falling from grace
You're falling from grace

Look what you started all your fantasies
The promise couldn't last
It's a diamond in a landfill somewhere

Close your eyes, say goodbye
Falling from grace
You're falling from grace
Butterflies, but it hurts
Falling from grace
You're falling from grace

Close your eyes, say goodbye
Falling from grace
You're falling from grace
Butterflies, but it hurts
Falling from grace
You're falling from grace
