

Red Light

Tei Shi

How many nights did I waste on you, on you?
Burning my eyes in this smoke-filled room, for two
I was giving everything then, I couldn't even see it
Looking at you in the rearview now

You were just a red light, I shoulda
Put you in your place like, I coulda
Say it to your face like, I woulda
If I knew then what I know now
Hit the road tonight like, I shoulda
Take the wheel and drive by, I coulda
There would be no second chances baby
If I knew then what I know now

You walk around like the world owes you, oh you
Made me believe that I owed you too
I know you like to play the victim
Blame me 'cause I never fixed you
I finally got you out the picture now

You were just a red light, I shoulda
Put you in your place like, I coulda
Say it to your face like, I woulda
If I knew then what I know now
Hit the road tonight like, I shoulda
Take the wheel and drive by, I coulda
There would be no second chances baby
If I knew then what I know now

I'm gonna do what I, I shoulda
I'm gonna do what I, I coulda, yeah-yeah
I'm gonna do what I, I woulda
Do what I, yeah-yeah

I shoulda, I should've done
I coulda

There would be no second chances baby
If I knew then, what I know now
