Twilight
Twilight
Twilight...

It's a nuisance
Hesitation's calling out my name
It started new, but it's old shit now
Pulls me down to the ground

I'd rather live my life in purple hazes
Right before the darkness falls
Just let me take you, just let me take you
To the place where it all began

It was all, it was all like a dream to me
It was all, it was all
That's how it seemed to me
That's how it seemed to me in the twilight
That's how it seemed to me in the twilight

Like a vision
Like a transcendental superstition
You appear in the nick of time
Where have you been all my life?

Want you to take my the hand and shake me
Shake me to the core again
I still remember, I still remember
How it felt when it all began

It was all, it was all like a dream to me
It was all, it was all
That's how it seemed to me
That's how it seemed to me in the twilight
That's how it seemed to me in the twilight

Take me back to the place with no name
I wanna forget, I wanna run away
Man, you're lame
Chasing fame
Suffocate in LA

Twilight...

Take me back to the place with no name
I wanna forget, I wanna run away
Man, you're lame
Chasing fame
Suffocate in LA
