

When He's Done

Tei Shi

Jonny says
He plays the guitar every day
I'm impressed
I'll believe whatever, I guess
And I keep thinking
I can't stop these wheels from turning inside of me
Loving him so recklessly is gonna make a mess out of me

Cause when he's done
He'll have taken every little bit of my heart
That's how it starts
And when he's gone
He'll take the words I wrote and throw them away
That's what they say

Pass the test
Laugh at everything that he says
Get undressed
Drink up if you wanna forget
And I keep thinking this is love, I wanna feel it inside of me
Bound to him and boundaries are bound to make a mess out of me

Cause when he's done
He'll have taken every little bit of my heart
That's how it starts
And when he's gone
He'll take the words I wrote and throw them away
That's what they say
