

Holiday Inn

Teitur

I'm staying at the Holiday Inn
Got a room for the weekend
I've come a long way from home
It's been a long day
Along the straight and narrow highway
I forgot what I am driving from
Teenage girl on her rollerblades
Old man relaxing in the shade
He sits as if he waits for someone
I hear a song in my head
It's on a loop and I am trying to get
Some meaning of these words

I'm staying at the Holiday Inn
Got a room for the weekend
I've come a long way from home
Guess it's a long way, guess it's a long way
Guess it's a long way to go

A couple speaking loud in a low voice
He's a talker and she's a listener
I'm dropping in mid sentence, when he says:
"Never understood why someone
Would try to kill two birds with one stone"
That's when I am so out of here

I'm staying at the Holiday Inn
Got a room for the weekend
I've come a long way from home
It's been a long day
Along the straight and narrow highway
I forgot what I am driving from

Maybe I am speaking in tongues
Maybe I am speaking in tongues
Maybe I am speaking in tongues all the way
Maybe I am speaking in tongues
Maybe I am speaking in tongues
Maybe I am speaking in tongues all the way
