

Looking For a Place

Teitur

I'm looking for a place
Not far from here
It's part of my calling
I'm guided to there

I've been on so many airplane
And so many countries
Looking for a place
I'm looking for a place
In so many ways
I scream into pillows
I pull to the side

I examine her body
On warm summer nights
Looking for a place
I'm looking for a place

I'm looking for a place
I'm looking for a place

I don't need your name
I don't need your address
I don't need your direction
I don't need your purpose

I'm looking for a place
I don't have a choice
I'm a simple believer
Who follows a voice
And I don't feel alone
I'm not out there on my own
Looking for a place
I'm looking for a place

I'm looking for a place
I'm looking for a place

I don't need your car
I don't need your password
I don't need your sign
I don't need your logo
