I Can See My Whole World Crashing Down

Television Personalities

I can feel my whole world crashing down upon my head
Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday's looking dull boring
So I think I'll dig myself a nice big hole
I can feel my whole world crashing down upon my skull
Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday's looking dull
From where I stood I really thought the fences were quite small
Now I realize that they were very very tall
Oh mother, tell me more
I can feel my whole world crashing down around my knees
And maybe we could try a peace of grief
And I thought you'd let it get up off my knees (?)
From where I stood I really thought the fences were quite small
But now I know the truth is they are very very tall
Oh mother, tell me more
I can feel this whole world baking cheesecake off my soul
Thursday, Friday , weekend's pretty bad
So I think I'll stay at home and just be sad
