Temperance

Oh, the brothers finally met
Face to face, so long they wandered...
Ready to fight one last time
Both of them knew what happened to them

I wish I'd warned you on time
But I couldn't. Irin created all of this.
To keep Anningan away
And get our kingdom for his plan, at the end

Viktor, you're our last hope here
You can help, bring us the truth!
Go back to your only dream
Regain control of the past far beyond
The forgotten beings will come back
And in this way Irin will be defeated

Viktor, you're our last hope here
You can help, bring us the truth!
Go back to your only dream
Regain control of the past far beyond

Daruma's eyes, waiting for him!
To the blue sky, from war still free!
Bleeding enough to build our world
Crying for him, there is no return!

Daruma's eyes, waiting for him!
To the blue sky, from war still free!
Bleeding enough to build our world
Crying for him, there is no return!

With these last words Faramond says goodbye
To Hermitage, revealing his last visions

But that could have been saved from their selves
The people of Hermitage become aware

Daruma's eyes, waiting for him!
To the blue sky, from war still free!
Bleeding enough to build our world
Crying for him, there is no return!

Daruma's eyes, waiting for him!
To the blue sky, from war still free!
Bleeding enough to build our world
Crying for him, there is no return!

Now your spell has been broken, he will be free to come back
To the kingdom, while you'll fall
You can change the story if you draw the other eye
Go back home with no consequences
But break the Daruma, you will stay here

I know I'm the last hope here
I will help them to bring back the truth!
I will make the dream come true

I'll regain control on the past far beyond
My destiny is to save this world
Now you will fall, goodbye Irin

The last scene thus sees Viktor in Park Avenue, just woken up after a nightm

Darkness is just a drawing, where every single little kingdom is colored
Look in the eyes of those who are afraid of it, find the key to their doom
