Temperance

It's a whole new world around Viktor
Who has thousands of questions constantly spinning in his mind
First of all, he wants to know who are the people on his side:
What happened to you?
Which side of the story are you on?

No one can tell where Dian comes from:
After the fight she was with us!
She seemed confused, her words were unclear
Stories of dragons, old fairytales

I'm searching for answers to the unknown
What are the powers we can hold?
I wish I was able to read people's mind
I wish I could stop him, but I was blind...

Can you hear my voice? Can you see my face?
You can't miss this chance, join me into the night...

Close your eyes, take a breath
Now you're walking on new paths!
Read the signs in the sky
Or we'll lose another time...

Close your eyes, take a breath
Now you're walking on new paths!
Find a shelter from the rain:
Hermitage must have no chains!

I'm burning inside, I drown in regret
I wish I could save us from this fate
For sure you're a pawn in our enemy's game:
To find his revenge he's using you...

Anningan's odds were never so bright...
He waited for preys like you to bite!
Loneliness's hunting our homes and our streets:
Silence is spreading all around!

Can you hear my voice? Can you see my face?
You can't miss this chance, join me into the night...

Close your eyes, take a breath
Now you're walking on new paths!
Read the signs in the sky
Or we'll lose another time...

Close your eyes, take a breath
Now you're walking on new paths!
Find a shelter from the rain:
Hermitage must have no chains!

Close your eyes, take a breath
Now you're walking on new paths!
Find a shelter from the rain:
Hermitage must have no chains!
