

Let It Beat

Temperance

Every moment we live is a mirror for what we'll become Every glance that we take at this world is a memory that comes
Feel the ground we walk, feel the air we breathe

Over time, over space
We are meant to be
Over rules we must fly
Where we belong to dreams
There is nothing too far
From the will of the ones
Who believe in their own heart
Let it beat

In the journey of life many times we will fight our fears
They will knock on the door, and they'll shout with the will to get in
We must open that door, let them in, have a dance with them all
Raise the glasses and cheer to the friendship you've always ignored

Over time, over space
We are meant to be
Over rules we must fly
Where we belong to dreams
There is nothing too far
From the will of the ones
Who believe in their own heart
Let it beat

There's no limit to stop our run, if we believe (if we believe)
There's a fire within that will burn, if we let it be Close your eyes, feel the heat, let it flow inside

Over time, over space
We are meant to be (we are meant to be)
Over rules we must fly
Where we belong to dreams (we belong to dreams)
There is nothing too far
From the will of the ones
Who believe in their own heart
Over time, over space
There is nothing too far
From you, if you believe

Over time, over space
We are meant to be
Over rules we must fly
Where we belong to dreams
There is nothing too far
From the will of the ones
Who believe in their own heart
Let it beat

Over time, over space, we are meant to be
