

Oblivion

Temperance

(I've found a shelter where I'm out of sight)
(And every care is getting out of my mind)
(There is no other place I wanna be)
(Away from all the things that make me bleed)

Words I've heard have hurt my ears
Things I see are blinding me
Life, it is sometimes so unbearable
Nature's going her own way
Never can have back what she takes
Even if the game is clearly so unfair

Yes I'm drowning deep in a consuming state
And my body's asking just to take a break
Cannot stand the burden of the universe
All alone
And I can't decide whether to leave or stay
Ever looking, searching for a brand new me
But there's only one thing that I know for sure
That I need

Sweet oblivion
To heal my scars away
To show me the right way
To reach true happiness
Never ending
I can't wait anymore
To flow with your sweet notes
To lose myself deep into your perfection

And I will stop searching for the truth beneath
And start living life with every chance I get
Now that I am strong I'm overcoming this lack of love
It is good sometimes to forget consciousness
When the music's loud and there is no one else
Close my eyes and longing for your warm embrace
I find rest

Sweet oblivion
You heal my scars away
You show me the right way
To reach the true happiness
Never ending
I can't wait anymore
To flow with your sweet notes
To lose myself deep into your perfection

(I've found a shelter where I'm out of sight)
(And every care is getting out of my mind)

How I need you
You heal my scars away
You show me the right way
To reach the true happiness
Never ending
I can't wait anymore
To flow with your sweet notes

To lose myself deep into your perfection

You heal my scars away

(You heal my scars away)

You show me the right way

(You show me the right way)

To reach the true happiness

(To reach the true happiness)

Never ending

I can't wait anymore

To flow with your sweet notes

To lose myself deep into your perfection!
