Omega Point

Temperance

Finally I've found some time to stop and think about my life
To wreck all of the walls I have been building around me
Something used to chain me to the ground and break my golden wings
But now I've found the strength to leave it all behind

A new dimension
I am exploring right now I couldn't figure it out
A light so bright suddenly started hitting my face

Denied my desire (I turned off the light)
(Not to make my choices) for freedom
(Kept myself on a leash) and kept myself inside a cage
Denied my desire (denied my real nature)
(I cannot wait no more) it's too late
(No way to have my life back) I can't turn back time

In the end the veil fell from my eyes and now I can see
I am aware of all the things that I can do
I'll find a new beginning under the same grey sky
It's me who has to change and not the world around

A new dimension
I am exploring right now I couldn't figure it out
A light so bright suddenly

Denied my desire (I turned off the light)
(Not to make my choices) for freedom
(Kept myself on a leash) and kept myself inside a cage
Denied my desire (denied my real nature)
(I cannot wait no more) it's too late
(No way to have my life back) I can't turn back time

Nothing stops me now (nothing stops me now)
All walls are falling down (walls are falling down)
With just one touch, one touch they collapse
I'm dancing on their ruins (I'm dancing on their ruins)
I'm floating in the air
No thoughts in my mind
No sorrow in my heart

The future is blinking at me
Chasing all demons away

Denied my desire (I turned off the light)
(Not to make my choices) for freedom
(Kept myself on a leash) and kept myself inside a cage
Denied my desire (denied my real nature)
(I cannot wait no more) it's too late
(No way to have my life back) I can't turn back time

Denied my desire (I turned off the light)
(Not to make my choices) for freedom
(Kept myself on a leash) and kept myself inside a cage
Denied my desire (denied my real nature)
(I cannot wait no more) it's too late
(No way to have my life back) I can't turn back time
