

Scared & Alone

Temperance

Wearing your best mask
You fake a thousand smiles when you're afraid
It is so funny how hard you try to look like you are someone else

Blind leading the blind
Surrounded by illusions just like you
Something's gone wrong within your plan:
Can't find yourself when you're alone

So empty inside
There's something deeper that you'd better keep in mind
So empty inside
There's something in your mood that makes me run away

Now I see it clear
You're frightened to the core
So close your eyes and hide in your lie
Now I see you unveiled
So scared and alone
No one can save you

Now I see it clear
You're frightened to the core
So close your eyes and hide in your lie
Now I see you unveiled
So scared and alone
No one can save you

Voices in my mind are tell me to spoil your absurd game
I'll be immune to your despite
And every slander made by you

So empty inside
There's something deeper that you'd better keep in mind
So empty inside
There's something in your mood that makes me run away

Now I see it clear
You're frightened to the core
So close your eyes and hide in your lie
Now I see you unveiled
So scared and alone
No one can save you

Now I see it clear
You're frightened to the core
So close your eyes and hide in your lie
Now I see you unveiled
So scared and alone
No one can save you

Time after time
I'm feeling upset
How can you lie
The way you do?

Now I see it clear

You're frightened to the core
So close your eyes and hide in your lie
Now I see you unveiled
So scared and alone
No one can save you
(No one can save you)

Now I see it clear
So close your eyes and hide in your lie
Now I see you unveiled
So scared and alone
