

Start Another Round

Temperance

Start another round
Roll another dice
Time is running out

Life is a matter of mercy
You're playing a game with everyone
No matter what they say
You're gambling every day of your life
You're fighting for nothing
When fortune's standing right by your side, you know
They're looking for more

People will laugh at your choices
Proud you'll answer back with a smile
Show them your aces
Raise the stakes to make them call
Look at their faces
Tell them you have got something more
Before you make them fall

There's a time when we've got to decide
There perfect move to write again our story, nothing matters but glory
Time means nothing to me, nothing to me

Woo oh

Start another round
Roll another dice
Time is running out
As everybody knows
That's the game of life
Will you pay the price?

Time is running out
As everybody knows

Are you strong enough?

No one can live on a prayer
Tricks won't save them all from the fall
Another player can't wait for you to stumble again
You're ready to face him
His eyes tellin' you that this time, you'll see, he'll even the score
Life is a matter of mercy
That's how it goes. No one wins here
Nothing's ever said or done
Only glances will help the brave to finally win the game or lose his way

The perfect move to write again our story, nothing matters but glory
Time means nothing to me
