

Stronger

Temperance

When the sun goes down
Seize the day, what it remains
I've lost many years without
Keeping anything for me
Run away so far
Over that you can see

Believe in fairytales
And the story speaks for me
Any chance that's coming back
Like a hidden memory

But I'm stronger, yes I'm stronger
Oh, I'm stronger
Stronger...

You can turn the page
Try to fill this empty space
Something's gonna happen soon
Only if you keep your faith
A wish for every star
A kiss for every breath

Believe in fairytales
And the story speaks for me
Any chance that's coming back
Like a hidden memory

And I'm stronger
Through the wind and through the rain
Yes I'm stronger
I won't fall another time
Oh, I'm stronger
Let me stay by your side
Stronger...

Please don't chill my summertime
Leading me astray
I'm a burning candle in an abandoned heart
You can trust me anytime
But it is still another false result, a new remorse
I can't face it everyday...

And I'm stronger
Through the wind and through the rain
Yes I'm stronger
I won't fall another time
Oh, I'm stronger
Let me stay by your side
Stronger...

And I'm stronger
Through the wind and through the rain
Yes I'm stronger
