

Tell Me

Temperance

Tell me what you want
There's no empty words inside of me
Staring at your eyes
I wanna escape from my life

Can you tell me now - will you use me like you've done before?
Will you make me wait for you every night?

I'll let your hand go and I will escape (and I will escape)
The call of freedom resounds in the rain

So now...
Tell me, tell me
What is right to be done?
Another way to learn to die
Tell me, tell me
'Cause I can't be your puppet no more

Tell me who you are
Now that I am drunk I can see through
And you'll realize
Nothing can stop my run

Blackmail with my heart
Are you sure I really want you back?
I'm leaving you behind, not feeling any regret

I'll let your hand go and I will escape (and I will escape)
The call of freedom resounds in the rain

Tell me, tell me
What is right to be done?
Another way to learn to die
Tell me, tell me
'Cause I ain't your puppet no more

You're an empty-container
You're a miracle of false perfection
Your eyes are made of jade
And your soul lays on a bed of stone
You're an empty-container
You're a miracle

I'll let your hand go and I will escape
The call of freedom resounds in the rain

Tell me, tell me
Tell me, tell me
What is right to be done?
Another way to learn to die
Tell me, tell me
'Cause I can't be your puppet no more
Tell me, tell me
What is right to be done?
Another way to learn to die
Tell me, tell me
'Cause I can't be your puppet no more
