

Afterlife

Temples

See you in the afterlife
Days of forgotten memories
Time will decide
See you in the afterlife
Never to say we're free again
I understand the search will end

There was a light that shines brighter again
The wake on the water, around you
Fighting the tide, while the silence it stays the same
Feel it fall away, but you were free again

See you in the afterlife
Days of forgotten memories
Time will decide
See you in the afterlife
Never to say we're free again
I understand the search will end

Falling behind, we stand closer again
The widened horizon to lean on
Spending my time like I did before on the other side
Where the seconds may more than test, until the end

Carry it on with you
All to no conclusion
Say to me
In energy, you carry it on
Never sure to go now
All it takes to walk by
It fades away until we're free again

See you in the afterlife
Days of forgotten memories
Time will decide
See you in the afterlife
Never to say we're free again
I understand the search will end
