

Enter now
Feel the past grow darker bound
Find a reason to look within
To be free

Aware for years
Only now to resurface
When a presence so threatening
Somehow still remains

Follow me down desire
Chasing your world behind
Only to be forever
Holding on for a sign

Magic eye watching over me
Sign of life staring back at me
When midnight dreams are closer
To what the conscience sees
Magic eye staring back at me

Fade to white
Another day to override
Urging you to follow it
To behold

Age for years
Only now, you see the fear
When the order of memories
Somehow stayed the same

Sign of life
Searching for the undefined
Waiting for the sign of life
Close to the final light

Follow me down desire
Chasing your world behind
Only to be forever
Holding on for a sign

Magic eye watching over me
Sign of life staring back at me
When midnight dreams are closer
To what the conscience sees
Magic eye staring back at me
