

Holy Horses

Temples

(Holy horses)

Holy horses lighting the skies
Ringing in my ears and filling up my eyes
Holy horses lighting the wind
Burning out my sorrows, burying my sins

Holy horses, all in a line
Living without space and transcending time
Holy horses running away
Running through the night and bringing forth the day

See them run away
See them run away
Running far away
Holy horses

Holy horses lighting the skies
Ringing in my ears and filling up my eyes
Holy horses lighting the wind
Burning out my sorrows, burying my sins

See them run away
See them run away
Running far away
Holy horses
