

Hot Motion

Temples

Fourteen days of commotion
Thirteen days in the storm
Twelve long days of destruction
We are born

Eleven days of reaction
Ten long days in the wind
Nine more days of distraction
We begin

You take a calendar page
And you witness it grow
You see the words as they flow
You see the rivers below

Eight more days of surrender
Seven more days in the thrill
Six days of temptation
Then we are still

(Hot motion)
(Hot motion)

Hot motion, ah
Hot motion, only a moment divine
Hot motion, ah
Hot motion, all for a momentary sign

Dream, dreaming of the start
Shine, shining from the start
Dream, dreaming of the start
Shine, shining from the start

Five more days of sensation
Four long days in the dark
Three more days of elation
To the mark

Two more days of sedation
One more day left to go
We stand still in the ocean
And then there we flow (we flow)

(Hot motion)
(Hot motion)

Hot motion, ah
Hot motion, only a moment divine
Hot motion, ah
Hot motion, all for a momentary sign

Dream, dreaming of the start
Shine, shining from the start
Dream, dreaming of the start
Shine, shining from the start

(Hot motion)

(Hot motion)

Hot motion, ah

Hot motion, only a moment divine

Hot motion, ah

Hot motion, all for a momentary sign
