

Time Is A Light

Temples

When your mood is heavy rain
Remember the weather will always change
Give it a second chance
Put it down to circumstance

When the horse is pale green
Remember life isn't always as it seems
Give it a second glance
Put it down, put it down to romance

When something's wrong, doesn't mean it isn't right
When the morning comes, let's hold on 'til the night
When something's wrong, doesn't mean it isn't right
And time is a light

When your mood is heavy rain
Remember the weather will always change
Give it a second chance
Put it down to circumstance

When your head isn't to blow
Remember life isn't always what you know
Wait for the rain to dance
Put it down, put it down to vain romance

When something's wrong, doesn't mean it isn't right
When the morning comes, let's hold on 'til the night
When something's wrong, doesn't mean it isn't right
And time is a light
