

Alone Time

TEMPOREX

Maybe if I wasn't so tired
I could get something done for once
But for now I'll just sit in my bed
And I'll watch everybody have fun

I know you think I'm complaining
But I favor my time alone
I dance around, laugh, and jack off
And nobody can tell me no

I give myself some time to think it all out
I try to figure out what it's all about
And maybe some day I will make it outside
But for now, I'll stay inside

Alone time
