TEMPOREX

Ten times I listen
I write it down I make no sound
Your skin stay glisten
Said pay attention, leave my house
One big transition
Your intuition sniffed it out
One more admission
You're on the floor
Picked up your mouth
I made the bomb and lit it now
Our castle cracks and crumbles down

I hurt my princess
I hurt my princess
I hurt my princess
I hurt my princess
I hurt my
I hurt
I hurt my princess
I hurt my princess
I hurt my princess
I hurt my princess
I hurt my
I hurt

Can't find the demon that'd took my soul
I'm feeling better when I fix my hole
Hoping that one day I can rebuild my home
I'm feeling better when I fix my hole

I hurt my princess
I hurt my princess
I hurt my princess
I hurt my princess
I hurt my
I hurt
