

Daydream

TEMPOREX

I'll try to be
Someone
Other than me
So one day you will see
What I do see in me
But for now I'll sit and look at you
But once you look at me
Oh, I will look away
'Cause when I see your face
My heart begins to race
Girl, give me a break
I don't know how much more my heart can take
Baby come on now

I know this is a daydream
But it just felt so real
Maybe when I wake up
You can tell me how you feel
I'll just sit here in my room
And think all about you
Or maybe one day I'll decide to finally talk to you
(To you)
(Talk to you)
