Delayed

TEMPOREX

I don't roll up I just roll the pretzel bag closed
When you leave I'll pack snacks in bags before you go
Take a tangerine and waltz with me before you gotta leave

We try to always seize the day
But it always gets away, yeah, it always gets away
I'll see you off on the 8:50 train
And it won't be a minute late
Unless that shit's delayed

Won't you come my way (my way)
By the train (by train, by - by train, yeah)
Please don't be late (don't be late)
Today (you know that you can't be late)

Won't you come my way
Is that alright?
Zoobiedoo
Alright...
