

U Open Up A Window

TEMPOREX

It had opened up my arms when I turned seventeen
Couldn't separate our hearts and I couldn't believe
That you opened up a window
For me
That you opened up a window
For me

I was sitting in the car with my two best friends
They were hitting cigs hard it was hurting my head
Can you open up a window
For me
Can you open up a window
For me

If you don't wanna fight then can you look me in the eye
If the window is closed then the room'll get hot
I don't wanna pretend
That you're on my side
Did you think I'd forget
I'd forget I'd forget I'd forget

When I'm alone in my head
Toss and turn my face is red
I still see you in my bed
I still see you in my bed
When I'm alone in my head
Toss and turn my face is red
I still see you in my bed
I still see you in my bed

Still not up and in it at all
But still I try to open it up
Still I try I
Still I try I
Still I try I

Why wouldn't you open it up
Crack it open just let it out
Open that window
See where it goes
You never know
Where it might go
