If you thought I was disturbed before
Baby boy I'm gon' disturb you now
If you thought I was disturbed before
Baby girl I'm gon' disturb you now

Disturb you
Disturb you
Disturb you
Disturb you

Give me shame I give you peace, from underneath
Give me mind and be a light to re-ignite
Can you open up the doors to let me in
Can you open up the doors to let me in

You can put the hurt inside on top my head
As I sing the love inside from out my mouth
Tell me what you need to find, tell me now
Tell me what you need to find

This is a place with no shame
This is a mind with no frame
This is the light with no dark
This is the truth with no faults

This is a place with no shame
This is a mind with no frame
This is the light with no pain
This is a place with no shame

If you thought I'll be distracted
Baby boy I'm gon' distract you now
If you couldn't be reminded
Baby girl I'm gon' remind you now

Tell me what you need to find now
Tell me what you need to find now
Tell me what you need to find now
Tell me what you need to find now

It's been burning on my mind now
Tell me what you need to find now
Tell me what you need to find now
Tell me what you need to find now
