

Ready

Tems

I'm ready for something different
Cleansing my system
Tonight

Thought it was the final
But it's the arrival
Coming out the gate, with the wave
It's a tidal
Feel like a revival
Coming inside of me

I must be holding something strong
For me to know I can carry on, oh yeah yeah
Something strong
I'll carry on
Something strong

Ready to go
With the light in my soul
I'm letting it show, darling
I won't hide anymore

Yeah I'm ready for game and I'm bound to win
You know they wanting more when they speak on me
I focus on me, I got it in me
No fear in my mind, it's a new story
And now I move differently
I'm moving quickly
I don't care anymore, and I'm giving it my all
Do it like I never did before
Put in a song like

With the light in my soul
I'm letting it show, darling
I won't hide anymore

All grass does is grow, don't you think so?
Don't you think so?
So why would you stop?
Why would you stop?
Don't you think so?

My mind was somewhere else
I was stuck between myself
I won't waste my time again, yeah
I was somewhere else babe
I'm never going back
This is the gate?
