Startin' my own game

Throw it up, got the money up
Got a new set, time to shut 'em up
Got my younger self, ready for the war
Take it to the candy shop, she know she got it all
Oh, yeah, she runnin', she know that she got it
She live the rough life, now she gotta her own field
Ain't nothin' new, before the nova tryna figure me out
It's a energy, you are not a better me
You can't be serious, you is hilarious
Is it my energy? Can't find a better me
You not my enemy, so pick your energy
You are delirious, baby, seriously
If you really that wild you comin' at me, eh, huh
It's like that, that's where you at, that's why you mad
You tryna hate me, but you love me inside
Loose screws, will always be lost in it
I'm gonna pray that you finally find it
But it is what is it
Steal my shit, you gon' miss, huh
Don't let me hate you, don't let me hate you
(Don't let, don't let me hate you)
No, I don't hate you, 'cause I preceed you
(You are know that I don't feed you)
Don't let me stop you, just keep on laughin', yeah
(I know you'll keep on laughin')
I know I already won, won (That's right)
I never gave it for a thought
Livin' beyond this world
Only comin' down for my own
I see for what it's worth
Never surrender, never afraid
'Cause I know I was born this way
Throw your hands up, let me hear you say
"Victory until the death of me", yeah

Go away, go away
Go away, go away
