After Hours

Ten Second Epic

First you made your choice,
Now you can't commit.
Then you dug your grave,
Now you're sleeping in it.
You left me in pieces.
When you walked away,
Did you really mean it?

Take it away, take it away,
Take it away, it's over now
Every day,
May you pay, may you pay somehow.
We built it,
Now watch me burn it down
And take it away, take it away.

As you're loosing ground,
Are you feeling stressed?
Another memory that you cannot suppress.
You lost me, no reset.
When you walked away,
Could you really forget?

Take it away, take it away,
Take it away, it's over now
Every day,
May you pay, may you pay somehow.
We built it,
Now watch me burn it down
And take it away, take it away.

All you wanted was decided.
You chose wrong,
Don't hide it.
But did you really mean it?
Did you really mean it?

Take it away, take it away,
Take it away, it's over now
Every day,
May you pay, may you pay somehow.
And we built it,
Now watch me burn it down.
And we build it,
Now watch it falling down.
We build it,
Now watch it hit the ground.
And take it away, take it away.
