Don't

Ten Second Epic

If our connection's disconnected why do I feel your silence sting?
I lost myself inside this cold war
The familiar sound of you not calling

I'm stranded here without direction
Until i remember you undressed
So I call to tell you I don't want you You're second-hand
I'm second best

Don't tell me you’re lost
You don't know what I’ve seen
You fall apart every time you want my sympathy
Don't talk about you
Don't ask about me
Don't argue ‘cause all you want to do is disagree
and if you’re coming back for me…
Don’t

Take your time get some perspective
Contemplate the mess you've made
You trade your tricks and they surrender
I know you always get your way

Don't tell me you’re lost
You don't know what I’ve seen
You fall apart every time you want my sympathy
Don't talk about you
Don't ask about me
Don't argue ‘cause all you want to do is disagree
and if you’re coming back for me…
Don’t

Take the good times with you
'cause there's no turning back
It's not like me to second guess
('Cause you've lost the meaning somehow)
Dive into the deep blue
‘cause there's no turning back
Your second-hand
I'm second best

Yeah!

Don't tell me you’re lost
You don't know what I’ve seen
You fall apart every time you want my sympathy
Don't talk about you
Don't ask about me
Don't argue ‘cause all you want to do is disagree
Yeah all you want to do is disagree
and if you’re coming back for me…
Don’t

If you’re coming back for me…
Don’t
