Runaway

Ten Second Epic

Dear insatiable,
We're watching while our future disappears.
It's damn regrettable.
There's nothing here to do to pass the years
But join the status quo.
And wait to die a mile away from here.
We just got to go now.
I will wait for you to run away.
I will take the chains that make you stay,
Break them off, and make our getaway...
So hold on, hold on tight.
Dear Miss all-the-way,
Will you regret when all that's left are scars?
And are we tempting fate,
Denying where we come from is who we are?
Yeah we will disobey,
And break the rules before they break our hearts.
We know who we are now.
We know who we are,
We know who we are now.
I will wait for you to run away.
I will take the chains that make you stay,
Break them off, and make our getaway...
So hold on, hold on tight.
Just hold on.
We've got to find our way out now before we become
All of our fear rolled into one.
You know we're not looking back now,
We've got to believe.
We're going to leave it all behind.
You'll see.
I will wait for you to run away.
I will take the chains that make you stay,
Break them off, and make our getaway.
So hold on.
I will wait for you to run away.
I will take the chains that make you stay,
Break them off, and make our getaway.
So hold on, hold on tight.
Just hold on.
