

Last Words

Ten Sharp

I will try hard to keep the feeling alive
But I get so alone
It's taking me there, right where I belong
The feeling's okay
Day after day
Ooh, nothing shows
The moods seem to change
And I can't come to go

She's a mystery to me
It always will
Another mystery

And I remember the last words
Just the other day
I remember the last words
I remember everything

She'll reduce me the tears
Break down my fears
Bittersweet inside
It's always enough to keep the fear alive
Sometimes as far the distance remains
And she'll be hurt
But when she's close, the passion almost hurts

She's a mystery to me
It's always she
Got a mystery I remember the last words
Just the other day
I remember the last words
I remember everything

A mystery

I remember the last words
Just the other day
I remember the last words
I remember everything

Yes, I remember the last words
Just the other day
I remember the last words
I remember everything now

Last words
Just the other day
Yes, I remember the last words
I remember everything
