

Never Alone

Ten Sharp

Who's gonna hit you hard who steals your pride
Who's gonna dry your tears when your downhearted
Who's gonna taste your love at last
Who's gonna pick you up too fast

Who's gonna see the truth behind the lie
Who's gonna keep his mouth while having smalltalk
Who's gonna be your friend to hide
To be yourself at last tonight

Forever never alone
I saw you at a party just the other day
And you seemed to amuse yourself under the influence of whatever
Never alone
Forever never alone
You asked me: "What the hell is the dresscode here"

What's happening here
You're just too far gone

What you see is what you get
Who's gonna make the change if only half
Who's gonna take the weight when things are heavy
Who's gonna be your friend to hide
To be yourself at last tonight

Never alone
Forever never alone
You know what you see is what you get
And sometimes you don't see what you can get
So where it all comes down to is
That you're always and never alone
Never alone
Forever never alone

What's happening here
You're just too far gone
You know what you see is what you get
And sometimes you don't see what you can get
