

Go

Ten Tonnes

Lovesick on the weekend
Been crawling round and falling on the walls, I hit my head
Been quick, what's the reason?
I been living in a hotel in the Valley of the Dead

Everybody's waiting for the day
'Cause when the sun is shining
All the flowers start sneaking away

Yeah, alright
Come on, make your mind up tonight
And yeah, alright
I think I'm losing my m-m-mind
Break your back
Bending over backwards till it snaps
Shake your bones
A-come on, come on, come on, come on
Come on, come on, come on, go

Dig a tunnel under the ocean
I'm knowing alligators who chew you up just 'cause they can
And keep your wits about ya, the days keep coming
I wanna work out in the desert with my soul in my hands

Come on, come on, come on, go

Time doesn't care if you're waiting
Carry on like you're the only one who's ever been away
And I couldn't care less, baby
And if you really want to, then come, have me

Yeah, alone
Nobody ever told you you were wrong
And yeah, alright
I think I'm losing my m-m-mind
Coming down
Falling through the sky into the ground
Shake your bones
A-come on, come on, come on, come on
Come on, come on, come on, go

Yeah, alright
Give it to me one more time
Yeah, alright
Give it to me one more time
Yeah, alright
Give it to me one more time
Yeah, alright
Give it to me one m-m-m-m-m-m-m-m-m-
