

Weight Of The World

Ten Tonnes

Nothing you say
Can change the truth
There's nobody else
Nobody but you
You give and you take
You got told it would work
But it slips through your hands
And feels like the world

Will swallow you whole
Swallow you down
You'll be searching for home
Trying to get out

Maybe I won't forget all about
Ah maybe I won't forget all about

Cause the days are dragging out
And the night's getting darker
I can feel you spinning out
Got to take it a little slower
No you can't have the weight of the world on your shoulders
No you can't have the weight of the world on your, on your shoulders
On your shoulders

I was thinking of you
Brought the frame and the picture
Well it's the closest you've been
Kinda felt like I'm with you
The pink evening sky
Well it swirls and changes
In the blink of an eye
You'll be chasing the day again

And maybe I won't forget all about
And maybe I won't ever get out

Cause the days are dragging out
And the night's getting darker
I can feel you spinning out
Got to take it a little slower
No you can't have the weight of the world on your shoulders
No you can't have the weight of the world on your, on your shoulders
On your shoulders

(Weight of the world on your shoulders)
On your shoulders
(Weight of the world on your shoulders)
On your shoulders
(Weight of the world on your shoulders)
Yeah
(Weight of the world on your shoulders)
Weight of the world
(Weight of the world on your shoulders)
The weight on your shoulders
(Weight of the world on your shoulders)
Yeah
