

Fearless

Ten

She was born on the breeze
So the legends say
A storm of a tease
Kept the wolves at bay
She grew like a queen
A sight to behold
Such a goddess but a thief
Of your heart and soul

The night is for lovers
When the darkness comes

In time she was blown
From the western plains
Her power over thunder
And lightning reigned
A pure force of nature
No man could own
For the beauty or the beast
Was beyond control

This light is for lovers
When the darkness comes

Signs to remember
Finding true love
Diamond chasing all this time
Caught up in her calicos
Sighs fan the embers
Lighting you up
Hands embrace beyond this night forever

Fearless tonight
In the darkness she waits
Peerless, sublime
Mark my words, this is true
Sheer by design
Is the love she creates
Like a lantern should revere the sun
The enchantment I once feared becomes
Fearless tonight

A man from the east
Stakes a gold rush claim
A peace loving town
Till the darkness came
The guns and the drums
The screams down below
With the dogs, where the demons
And the gods won't go

The light is for lovers
When the darkness comes

Signs to remember

Fearless tonight
Peerless, sublime
Fearless tonight

Signs to remember
Sighs fan the embers
Lighting you up

Fearless tonight
Peerless, sublime
Sheer by design

Fearless tonight
Peerless, sublime

Is the love she creates
