

Jericho

Ten

Praise the Neolithic desert seed
Raised in ninety six hundred (9600) BC
Centuries later the dawn is breaking
Israelites are reborn
And they're making plans
For Canaan land

Trace the river Jordan to the sea
Face the west and Jericho is seen
Destiny comes and there is no escaping
This Promised Land could be ours
If we make this stand
Replace this sand with milk and honey

Tear down the walls of Jericho
Tear down the walls of Jericho
Tear down the walls of Jericho
Tear down the walls of Jericho

Days defined as military siege
The Ark of the Covenant is all we need
Exodus came at a price and we paid it
Born out of faith, not a world we created
Now, survive somehow
To shape and conquer

Tear down the walls of Jericho
The ark unleashed, the hammer blow
Tear down the walls of Jericho
A tale of dissidence and woe
Tear down the walls of Jericho
When faith and battle horns breach stone
Tear down the walls of Jericho
The whole damned city's got to go

Tear down the walls of Jericho
The ark unleashed, the hammer blow
Tear down the walls of Jericho
A tale of dissidence and woe
Tear down the walls of Jericho
When faith and battle horns breach stone
Tear down the walls of Jericho
The whole damned city's got to go

Tear down the walls of Jericho
Tear down the walls of Jericho
Tear down the walls of Jericho
Tear down the walls of Jericho

Tear down the walls of Jericho
The ark unleashed, the hammer blow
Tear down the walls of Jericho
A tale of dissidence and woe
Tear down the walls of Jericho
When faith and battle horns breach stone
Tear down the walls of Jericho
The whole damned city's got to go
