

Lost Soul

Ten

Catch me when I'm falling
Shield me from the rain
Help me when I'm crawling
Pick me up again

I have days on which
I'm stalling from the start
Never finishing the race
Though the wind says maybe
Another time and place

Balancing emotions on a
Fine line
Lying like a missionary
Stone cold
Blind to the danger signs

Bound like a prisoner in a
Freak show
Want to say I love you but I'm Tongue-tied
Crowned by derision, I'm a
Lost soul
Dying 'til the end of time

Answer when I'm calling
Hold me once again
Keep me safe 'till morning
Teach me how to pray

If the truest words
Are spoken from the heart
Then my darling I should say
That I truly love you
Let me count the ways
