

Shield Wall

Ten

(Shield Wall)

The battleground has bled
The mist enshrouds its crimson dead
And all around I see
The spectacle that war can be

As once again we stand
To face the battle swords in hand
The gods have turned away?
But gods will not relive this day
Forever, forever

Hundreds falling
Flightless broken arrows
Black rain turns the daylight sky to night
(Shield Wall)
Hundreds calling
Blood, flesh, bone and marrow
Thundering words and horns infinite
(Shield Wall)

We sailed from frozen lands
Our destiny in Odin's hands
To sew our future seed
Of settlements, a Viking creed

Each of us understands
We finish as our Gods command
We live and die this way
In endless night, eternal day
Forever, forever

Hundreds falling
Flightless broken arrows
Black rain turns the daylight sky to night
(Shield Wall)
Hundreds calling
Blood, flesh, bone and marrow
Thundering words and horns infinite
(Shield Wall)

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

Hundreds falling
Flightless broken arrows
Black rain turns the daylight sky to night
(Shield Wall)
Hundreds calling
Blood, flesh, bone and marrow
Thundering words and horns infinite
(Shield Wall)

Hundreds falling

Black rain turns the daylight sky to night
(Shield Wall)

Hundreds calling
Blood, flesh, bone and marrow
Thundering words and horns infinite
