

The Esoteric Ocean

Ten

I can see
The shadows in the half-light
A haunting scene
I breathe
But drown in my emotions
The esoteric ocean
Inside of me

I drown in emotions
This esoteric ocean
I drown in emotions
This esoteric ocean

This tidal wasteland
Consumes my body every day
I play the hero just to falter
In the cast rehearsal

Each timeless grain of sand
Immersed and drowned beneath the waves
Is sacrificed upon the altar
Of the universe

Now that dawn is breaking
Nothing is what it seems
I stand alone in this place
Out of reach

I can see
The shadows in the half-light
A haunting scene
I breathe
But drown in my emotions
The esoteric ocean
Inside of me

I drown in emotions
This esoteric ocean
I drown in emotions
This esoteric ocean

Blinded, betrayed now
Each scene plays out and fades away
Focal reality has altered
To be irreversible

Earth is quaking
Hell on the wildest seas
Out of control, no escape
From my dreams

I can see
The shadows in the half-light
A haunting scene
I breathe
But drown in my emotions
The esoteric ocean

Inside of me

I can see
The shadows in the half-light
A haunting scene
I breathe
But drown in my emotions
It's daunting

I can see
The shadows in the half-light
A haunting scene
I breathe
But drown in my emotions
The esoteric ocean
Inside of me

I drown in emotions
This esoteric ocean
I drown in emotions
This esoteric ocean

Inside of me

I drown in emotions
This esoteric ocean
I drown in emotions
This esoteric ocean
