

Said I wouldn't fall in the trap
 But now I'm caught in the act
 And looking back it was nothing more than misery
 And given all the fucking regret
 You would think I'd forget
 But turn around and see that everybody's mocking me

Said I wouldn't fall in the trap
 But now I'm caught in the act
 And looking back it was nothing more than misery
 And given all the fucking regret
 You would think I'd forget
 But turn around and see that everybody's mocking me

(I SEE YOU)
 The dirty foil is calling for me
 (Come here!)
 No matter how hard I try to suppress
 (I SEE YOU)
 Close my eyes, pray for something more
 (Release me!)
 I trip and fall right back to where I started, look up and
 (I.C.U.)

Waiting for the day that my heart stops
 Stuck inside my brain like a blood clot
 I can feel my insides sinking, shrinking
 Can't sleep, I haven't ate a damn thing, I
 Can't believe I let it get back to this
 Death death death, on my mind I'm a fucking mess
 Never thought I'd let you take another piece of me
 But here I am bleeding out at your fucking feet!

Amputate me!

I SEE YOU

The crudest oils are pouring from me
 (Come here!)
 No matter how hard I try to resist
 (I SEE YOU)
 My stomach turns, I'm succumbing to you
 (Release me!)
 I start to vomit, it's killing me
 I feel sick

REVULSION!

Right motherfucker, I'm back, we're right on track
 And just like that, you throw one back
 And there's nothing that can stop us
 'Cause I will follow back to the gates of hell
 (Take one last breath in)
 I.C.U.

I SEE YOU!

I knew you'd come crawling right back to me
WEAKNESS!
What a sorry ending
I knew you'd come crawling right back
FRAILTY!
What a sorry sight
